

Breakthrough to Greatness

INSPIRED ACTION

Inspired Action comes directly from the highest wisdom within you. Your inner spirit, acknowledging the definitive clarity you have reached about something, suddenly seems to infuse new energy and excitement into you about your life. A light goes on in your mind; creative ideas begin to flow.

Inspired Action is never business as usual. Instead of a worrisome, stressful reaction to your present challenge or problem, a higher knowing rises up in answer to your need. This greater level of mental clarity about a situation can be followed by an insightfully earnest inclination to act. It can even be accompanied by a physical sensation in your body as a validating signal.

That impulse to act has both an urgency and authority about it because it is inspired. This means your mind and heart are working in alignment with each other for your highest good. At first consideration, the action may not seem logical and can even appear to be unsound. Yet somewhere inside you just know that it's right. The more quickly and frequently you follow through on any inspiration, the easier it is to trust its sound and steady inner guidance.

Learn how Inspired Action can help you Breakthrough to your Greatness!

- Move forward more quickly and confidently toward your goals.
- Learn to identify the difference between a reactive urge and a truly inspired idea.
 - Move through your life with greater joy and self-assurance.

Contact Louise Dunn for Breakthrough to Greatness coaching today.

<https://www.louisedunn.com>